20-MILE BETHEL TO RUMFORD CANOE MARATHON A SUCCESS

The 4th annual 20-mile Androscoggin Canoe Marathon Sunday was a success both in terms of the numbers participating and weather conditions.

Organizer John Preble of Yarmouth was delighted with the 51 entries and the enthusiasm of the participants. The only discouraging feature was the wind which made rowers work harder, he said. The race began at the Androscoggin River bridge at Bethel and ended at the home of Clifford Buck at Rumford Center.

Two special awards were given, the Madison Cup, to the team with the best time, and the Stan Fox Trophy for the best beginners recreational class. Ron and Dave Kesler won the Madison Cup for the second year in a row and the Stan Fox Trophy went to Tom Carter and Cam Taylor, both of Bethel.

These people placed in the top three positions in their respective classes and were presented special mugs made by Fay Corrin.

One person: first, Al Prysunka; second, Greg Varney; third, Charles Makl.

M. S. A. D. #44 Directors' Meeting

The S.A.D. 44 Board of Directors met in regular session at the Telstar Library on Monday evening of this week.

Dr. Wayne Gersen, Superintendent of schools, reported that C. N. Foster of Augusta was low bidder at $10,330 for the rebuilding of the boiler at the Telstar facility. The bid was $1,600 lower than the nearest competitor. The bid includes follow-up service in September to ensure the installation is satisfactory. Dr. Gersen also reported that the freezer breakdown at the Telstar kitchen resulted in the loss of $350 worth of commodities. It has been estimated that over $10,000 worth of foodstuffs were involved. Following emergency storage at the Locke Mills Food Center over the Fourth of July holiday, the commodities are now in storage at Oxford Provisions in Norway awaiting repair of the Telstar unit.

Dr. Gersen also noted that the year-end District closing balance was some $40,000 more than was anticipated. The closing balance computed at fiscal-year end is $73,007. It had been projected that there would be a balance of $33,500. The over-estimation was the result of computer error and was detected and corrected during the year-end closing procedure.

A two-year negotiated agreement with A.F.S.C.M.E. (American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO), covering hot lunch, custodial and bus

FROM THE bethel town office

The Board of Assessors met in regular session on Tuesday, July 12, in the Town Office Meeting Room. Due to special circumstances of use, the Assessors set valuations of $704,400 and $755,900 for GMP and Foxland Pipeline valuations respectively, for Bethel properties based on correspondence with the state and the companies regarding accepted valuation ratios. More than 200 changes to 1983 valuations were accepted. Assessors discussed a 6.78% increase in Bethel property valuation proposed by the State and a representative of the taxation department will be invited to make further explanations to the Board.

In other business, the Assessors reviewed correspondence from David Denison regarding the use factor for his garage formerly used as a store. Specific requests, many seeking reassessment of particular properties, discussed from Ivory continued on Page Five "DAYS TO REMEMBER" A DAY TO REMEMBER!

Over 150 people gathered at the Bethel Inn Tuesday to celebrate the 70th Anniversary of the Inn.

Thirty models from the Bethel area delighted the audience with fashions from the late 1890's to the present day, and even a preview of the Olympic outfits of 1984.

A quickie luncheon preceded the fashion show, narrated by Anne Moran, and accompanied by Lori Marier, classical pianist-in-residence at the Inn.

A beautiful green backdrop was provided by greenery from the Unicorn Flower Shop, for the delightful fashions of yesteryear from the collections of Becky Bailey and Marie Lang, co-ordinated by Pat Doon. Fashions of Today were from the Fashion Basket and beautifully coordinated by Ruth Grover.

Bonnie Keller of Channel 8 news was a prominent guest at the luncheon and show.

The event was a wonderful experience for all who came and for all who worked so hard to make it a success. Chris Greenleaf was the production manager, and was responsible for the professional manner in which it was done.

Among comments from the audience were "I remember wearing one of those," "I wish it could buy that gown."

Following church, Sunday, July 10, there was a family dinner at Cleveland Lovejoy's, to observe the birthdays of Mrs. Fannie Cummings and her granddaughter, Dorothy West of Rumford. The special feature was an old fashioned strawberry shortcake with real whipped cream for the group of 15. Mollycokett, the Indian Princess in whose honor festivities are being celebrated in the Bethel area and surrounding communities this week end. There are many legends about this Indian maiden, whose young beauty was the pride of her father, the Chief of the Tribe, who once roamed the Androscoggin River and its verdant lush forests, hunting for game, and fishing the clear sparkling waters to sustain their meager existence. All the tribal secrets and lore were passed to the little princess, with the full knowledge that her days and nights upon this earth were to be the rise and fall of numerous harvest moons. She was taught what herbs were to be picked and dried at the proper times in their season, to cure any diseases or illnesses that the tribes might encounter during the long winter months. Upon the steadily advancing population growth of the white man, "Molly" found herself in her old age to be just one of the few survivors of her race, but remained friendly, though stolidly silent, to the pale faced creatures. She continued to roam throughout the countryside, as her forebears had before her, stopping to rest, and camp in locations, where whatever game or herb she was seeking grew or roamed in profusion. However, if she was scoffed at, or sneered at, her violent temper could be felt—and has for centuries been lasting, as portrayed in the legend of her curse upon Snow Falls. It seems that the white man had quite a huge lumbering operation going on in that area, and a saw mill was constructed there, harnessing the falls water supply to turn the great saws. Mollycokett is said to have approached this area one day and asked for a crust of the white man's bread, as that year the foraging for berries was meager, and the corn was not growing well because of many rains and cold chilly evenings. The white man refused to share with her his abundant supply of provisions. She shook her fist at him, violently babbling a strong mixture of the fiery Indian tongue. Then she repeated for his benefit in broken English, "I shall put a curse upon you and upon this place, no business of the white man will ever flourish by these falls again." Not long afterwards, the mill was burned to the ground, and every attempt that has been made throughout the years to build any type of industry on the Falls' site has failed.

However, if she was used well, her powers could be unsurpassed by kindly deeds. It is said one evening, when a blizzard was striking the whole country, when man and beast, should not have been out, "Molly" approached a settlement now known as "Paris Hill" and pleaded for cover at one of the huge wooden frame structures upon the Hill. She was admitted, asked to warm herself by the fire, given food, and was pleaded with to stay within until the raging storm outside subsided. While there, the tiny male infant in the family, began to run a high fever, and chills befell him, and his tiny cries grew weaker and weaker. Molly is said to have opened her little leather pouch that she wore strapped to her waist, and concocted a strange mixture of herb teas, to be added to warm milk.

Legend tells us that she stayed with the young parents until the baby was well. Upon her departure she told them, "Your son is healthy now, and will grow into a snapping tall man, his wisdom will excel many—and his fame will be acknowledged throughout your nation." And it certainly came true—for that sickly infant, grew indeed to a hale and hearty man, who one day became the Vice President under Abraham Lincoln. His name was Hannibal Hamlin—and his birthplace still stands at Paris Hill.

So perhaps, in closing, as we ponder upon these legends. — It may well suggest to us that perhaps the weakest amongst us—becomes the mightiest; for Molly's "Great Father in the Sky"—heard her prayers, just as He hears ours.

Enjoy the festivities and keep the faith.

Had a real hot week and it took a lot out of some people. It seems good to have it a little cooler.

Mr. and Mrs. David Fleet called on Julia Fleet at Ledgewood. Found her feeling pretty good. Darnita Yates had a cookout the other night. She had a real good turnout and the weather was good too.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell of Westwood, Mass., were at their place for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Fleet and Eva Yates were in Gorham, N. H., on Saturday night.

What a week! First it's hot and humid, then dry and cool. The weather can't make up its mind what to do.

So hot and humid I haven't been very ambitious. Monday the Fourth of July, Russell and I didn't go anywhere to celebrate or anything. Just puttered around home doing little jobs that were waiting for us. In late afternoon, Laura and Bernard Hutchins of East Andover called for a few minutes.

Russell has been working in the garden putting up poles for the beans to climb on, cultivating and working around the plants in general so they will grow better.

What thundershowers we had one day! Sounded like old St. Peter just couldn't decide where to put his piano up there. The showers sure lasted long enough anyway.

Thursday, Russell and I went to Norway for appointments and errands. It was such a good day that we should have been home doing the many things that needed doing, but have to get away at times. Peggy came home from a nice vacation with her daughter, Myrna, and husband, Bernard White, at their cottage on Lake Thompson. She enjoyed a nice week with them.

Friday, Peggy decided the lawn needed mowing, and Russell mowed out back of the house, so the place looks better than it did, but I'm afraid there is still grass to mow.

Saturday was Grange night so did a little cooking for the pot luck supper that we usually have before the meeting. Everyone brings something and when it is all put onto the table, we each try a little bit of everything and have a delicious meal. We had quite a few visitors at the meeting and were glad to have them as we don't have enough members turn out. Five visitors came from Oxford Grange, two from Franklin Grange and two from Mystic Valley Grange. We were late getting home, but when Dot Canwell from

MEN'S SOFTBALL STANDINGS

As of July 12 team standings in the Men's Softball League are: Andover Loggers, 10-3; Greenwood, 9-3; Bethel Merchants, 9-3; Bryant Pond, 9-4; The Inn, 9-4; Sunday River Valley Rats, 6-7; Rowe Hill, 5-8; The Pits, 4-8; Andover Wood 1-10; and the Stray Cats, 1-12.

Oxford and Richard Felt from Franklin Grange got together, we have a sing-a-long after the meeting. Those of us that stay for it really enjoy ourselves. Some even take advantage of the good music and dance too. This wasn't the first time it has happened and I hope not the last. We enjoy the music too well to let that happen.

Sunday we didn't feel too lively, so we decided to put up a picnic lunch and go somewhere. We headed for New Hampshire to see if our friends in Randolph were home. They were, so enjoyed a picnic lunch with Bill and Dora Cairns and a nice visit afterward. Later in the afternoon, we went to do a little shopping. Always find something to buy. Really had a grand day for a ride and enjoyed it to the fullest. In the evening, Darnita Yates and daughter Eva called for a short visit. As it was cool and good, Russell worked in the garden for a while before calling it a day.

We have had some Purple Finches eating the sunflower seeds from the feeder, but sorry to say the seeds are all gone now, so they will have to find food elsewhere. It has been most interesting to see what a difference there is in the color of the male and female. Have also had some yellow finches eat there too. They are such pretty golden color as they flit through the air. I love to watch all the different birds and try to distinguish which bird is singing which song. They are all so delightful to hear and make the world a happier place to live.

FROM THE
Maine State SenateR. Donald Twitchell
State Senate District 5

In this, the first column of the summer recess, I thought I would explain the process by which a bill becomes law because some of you may want to suggest legislation for the next legislative session.

Maine's legislature is a constituent legislature—any department of government, citizen group, or individual may suggest legislation. These groups must present suggestions to a legislator, who in turn, drafts the bill and introduces it for discussion. Once the bill is written, it is sent to the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, and recommended to a specific joint standing committee (there are 19 committees.)

At this point, the bill is listed on the daily calendar. It is read before the Legislature and legislators vote to refer the bill to a Committee for consideration. Once the bill is received by the Committee, a date for a public hearing is set. Anyone in the state may come to the hearing and testify. After the hearing, the Committee members consider all of the input from the hearing, and file a report on the bill. The report can be a divided report or a unanimous report. The divided report means that all of the legislators on the Committee were unable to agree on what should happen to the bill.

One of the following recommendations will be made on each bill which comes out of the committee:

- This bill ought to pass;
- This bill ought not to pass. If this is a unanimous decision, the bill is filed and no further action is taken unless two thirds of the Legislature votes to reconsider it.
- This bill ought to pass with an amendment;
- This bill ought to pass in a new version or new draft; or
- This bill should be withdrawn by the Legislator(s) who sponsored it.

After the bills are reported out of Committee, they are read twice before the House and Senate. Bills which have been recommended for passage are placed on special consent calendar for two legislative days during which time a member of the Legislature may take the

FARNUM-BUCK REUNION TO BE HELD SATURDAY, JULY 16

The 80th Annual Farnum-Buck reunion will be held at the cottage of Ronald and Bernice Easter at Concord Pond in Woodstock, on Saturday, July 16 beginning with a pot luck hot dish, beans and salad dinner served at noon by the dinner committee, Dorothy Farnum and Bertha McIntyre. Business meeting will be conducted by President Gregory Edwards; entertainment provided by Erma Lowe, Frank Knox, Dennis Farnum and Stephen Sessions. Family Historians Ernest and Marilla Easter and Stephen Sessions request old family pictures and information be brought in.

bill from the calendar and challenge the Committee's recommendation.

Once the bill has been read twice, if the Senate and House disagree on it, a lengthy process for further discussion and compromise can be instituted. The bill is then returned with amendments and is reconsidered by both houses. Once both houses agree on the bill, it is printed in final form. It is then reconsidered before both houses of the Legislature.

If a bill passes both houses, it is signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House and sent to the Governor. The Governor can sign it into law, allow it to become law (after 10 days), veto it, or if the Legislature adjourns before any of this, the Governor may sign the bill or return it to the next session. Vetoes can be over-ridden by a two-thirds majority vote from the chamber in which the bill originated.

This process seems lengthy, but does allow for a very careful review of all legislative proposals and provides for input and commentary for residents, as well as assuring a fair treatment of each legislative proposal.

I would encourage any of you who are concerned about Maine laws, a particular law which you feel should be changed, or a law which you feel should be adopted, to give me a call and we can discuss sponsorship of legislation for next session. I can be reached over the summer at 289-3386 or 743-2419.

Next week I will begin to detail many of the new laws which passed during the past session.

KIMBALL REUNION HELD AT
MOSES MASON HOUSE JUNE 18

The June 18 Reunion of Maine Descendants of Richard Kimball, 1637-1676, Ipswich, Mass., attracted around 75 to the Moses Mason House, Bethel, for an all day program starting at 10 a. m.

Registering those attending were Mrs. Elizabeth Carter, West Bethel and Mrs. Ellen Parady, Gray. Serving as hosts and hostesses for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart (Estelle Kimball) Martin, Rumford Point, the Carleton Chappes, Rumford Center; Mrs. Celia Kimball Gorman; Mrs. Alice H. Kimball; Robert D. Hastings, all of Bethel.

In charge of morning coffee and snacks were Mrs. Sarah Stevens, Bethel and Mrs. Bertha Kimball, Gray, wife of Mahe Chairman Gordon Kimball. Delicious snacks were provided by 12 of the Kimball family members from Bethel, Norway, Rumford and South Paris.

Help on genealogy was available from Mrs. Agnes Howe Haines and Mrs. Judy Barker. A chart at the registration desk showed that more descendants of ancestor in common Richard Kimball's son, Richard, were present than descended from his other 10 children.

Everyone enjoyed exhibits of Kimball pictures, and family treasures and some of their needlework. Guided tours of the Museum were offered.

In the afternoon Chairman Gordon Kimball conducted a business meeting during which Walter K. Fales, President of the National Kimball Association, who came from his Royal Oak, Mich., home was introduced, and told about the upcoming 15th Annual Reunion of National Kimball Association, Aug. 12, 13 and 14 at New England College, Henniker, N. Entropy is a measure of the amount of energy no longer capable of conversion into work—Rudolph Clausius—1868—"Entropy—Jeremy Rifkin". Websters—entropy always increases and available energy diminishes.

Heavy stuff—Gramma knew it years ago and, if I had my "druthers" I'd live in remote Maine with my Bible, a garden and fresh water spring—there with simple tools 1/600 of a calorie would produce one calorie versus the big farmer who uses ten calories for each one calorie produced in addition to polluting the air with diesel fumes and the results of manufacturing steel, rubber etc.

Entropy—the world is wearing out—and we had better come to grips with this ever increasing problem. Wasn't in God's plan for the said of his creation—it was very good.

Using the earth's energy (by the way we're looking to the moon and solar system for new supplies) man has always tried to make a better world—yet the results have a downward trend—man turned atomic energy into a bomb and now we're involved in genetic engineering of human beings, Adam and

MS. SNOWE SUPPORTS
LEGISLATION TO AID
ELDERLY HOMEOWNERS

Congresswoman Olympia Snowe is supporting an innovative program that would allow elderly homeowners to use equity in their property as a source of additional income.

Ms. Snowe is co-sponsoring legislation to allow senior citizens to sell their homes to a financial institution and in turn be paid a regular annuity, while continuing to live in their home under a lease arrangement.

"Many of our elderly on fixed incomes are struggling to keep up with food, medical and heating expenses. Often, in order to increase their income, they are forced to sell their home and rent or lease an apartment. This legislation will allow them to continue to live in their home and benefit from the equity that has accumulated in that investment," she said.

The federal legislation is similar to an experimental home equity conversion program that is scheduled to begin early next year in Maine.

Maine officials estimated about 70% of the state's senior citizens own their homes and the collective value of the property is estimated at $4 billion.

The legislation, which has also been introduced in the Senate, would eliminate tax problems which had prevented such sale-leaseback arrangements in the past.

It would give the elderly homeowner a one-time capital gains exemption that is available to everyone over 55 who sells their home. It also would allow the purchaser to depreciate the value of the residential property it had purchased and then leased back.

"Access to the rewards of home equity—which has been dearly earned—should be given to our elderly during their lifetimes. This program will go a long way towards providing needed income," she said.

NEW LIBRARIAN AT GOULD—

Robert L. Damm of West Paris, has been appointed librarian at Gould Academy. Mr. Damm brings an extensive background in history and administration to Gould, which will be of considerable benefit to the school.

He received his BA and MA degrees in History from Ohio State University and has done Ph.D. work in Education at Ohio State and the University of Connecticut. Mr. Damm was the supervisor for Education and Field Services for the Ohio Historical Society; Director of Education at Mystic Seaport, Mystic, Conn.; the Director of the Idaho Historical Society in Boise, Idaho; Director of the Maine State Museum in Augusta; a management consultant to the Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri State Historical Societies; and Director of the Buffalo and Erie County Historical Society and Adjunct Professor of History at Buffalo State College.

He and his wife, Shirley, own and operate Colonial Orchards in West Paris and they have three grown children. Mr. Damm will commute to Bethel each day and has already begun work in the library for the current Gould Summer School program for gifted and talented students and to prepare for the start of Gould's 148th year of education.

Mr. Damm's appointment was announced by Headmaster William P. Clough III, who is also new to Gould this year, having been appointed as Headmaster-elect in March. Mr. Clough started his full time duties at Gould on July 1.

No sewer rate increases are expected this year (for the second consecutive year), although, as has happened in past years, July sewer bills will not be posted until the end of the third week of the month (about July 21). It is anticipated that changing the sewer department's accounting year from July to June will streamline the billing procedure and eliminate the billing delays of the past.

Rotary Club News

The Bethel Rotary Club held its weekly luncheon meeting at the Sudbury Inn on Tuesday, July 12. The primary topic of discussion involved Mollycodd Day activities. With the continuation of the beautiful summer weather for Saturday, July 16, it is hoped all of you will be on the Common for Mollycodd Day fun. In the event of rain all programs will be postponed until Sunday, July 17. Come on out and support your local clubs and have a great time doing it.

It is appropriate to note that in order to obtain electrical and gas service to operate equipment, etc., on the Common, requires the help of some of our local contractors and service dealers. These persons can be observed at work on Friday afternoon and evening and on Saturday morning, and their valuable time is donated.

Guests joining with Bethel Rotary Tuesday were: Bill Lowther, Boonton, N. J.; Chas. Feld, Marco Island, Fla.; Quentin Gallagher, Tennessee; Gil Robinson, Wilmington, Del.; El Stausebach, Wilmington, Del.; Eric Paul, Bethel, and Dave Beier, guest of Jim Delamater, and Don Weisel, guest of Bill Lowther.

NOTES FROM THE BETHEL LIONS DEN

On Tuesday, June 21, the Bethel Lions Club held its last formal meeting for the year '82-'83, at Lake Christopher in Bryant Pond. A family style cook-out was enjoyed by the Lions, their families, and guests. This year's Lions cook-out served as installation night for the '83-'84 club officers. After an outstanding feed, fun and laughter, the very important part of the meeting started, the installation of new officers. The guest speaker for the evening was Past District Governor Fred Williams of the Windham Lions Club. He also conducted the installation ceremony.

This year's officers are: President, Dennis McLeod; 1st Vice President, James Pelzel; 2nd Vice President, Earl Merrill; 3rd Vice President, Eugene Kelly; Secretary/Treasurer, Eldon Greenleaf; Lion Tamer, Basil Green; Tail-twister, Peter Anderson.

The guests attending this year's cook-out were: P.D.G. Fred Williams and his wife, Laura, and Zone Chairman Dick Gross and his wife, Joanna, of Dixfield. Even though this meeting was the last of the Lions' year, the club continues to serve the community year round. Regular meetings will resume in September. During the summer break, members of the various committees will still hold meetings.

es; Second Honors—a student must achieve an average of 80 or better with no grade below 80; Third Honors—a student must achieve an average of 80-89 with no grade below 80.

The transfer of Adrienne Gallant from a kindergarten position at Bethel Bishop School to a second grade position was approved by the Board. The Kindergarten vacancy is to be posted within the bargaining unit (Telstar Educators Association).

Walter Phillips, principal of the Telstar Middle School, was appointed by the Board to serve as interim Superintendent of Schools from Aug. 1, until such time as a new Superintendent is able to assume the position. A substitute Middle School principal will be named by the Board in August to fill Mr. Phillips' position during the time he is serving as interim Superintendent.

With the approach of the application deadline in July, the Superintendent Screening Committee has scheduled candidate interviews during the initial week of August, with the full Board to interview finalists on Saturday, Aug. 20. (The original date of Aug. 13, was changed due to a date conflict.)

The resignation of Richard Roy as Transportation Supervisor for the District was accepted effective July 22. Mr. Roy has held the position since last Fall. He has accepted a position of Woodlands Manager for the University System of New Hampshire.

The Superintendent was authorized to post any positions that may occur in the A.F.S.C.M.E. and Telstar Educators Association bargaining units prior to the Board's next meeting on Monday, Aug. 8.

Board member Victor Coolidge of Bethel was not present Monday evening.

The next meeting of the S.A.D. 44 Board is scheduled for Monday evening, Aug. 8 at the Andover Elementary School.

BUDWORM DAMAGED FOREST IS HIGH FIRE HAZARD AREA

Over 750,000 acres of timber killed or damaged by the spruce budworm poses a potentially serious forest fire hazard in eastern, western and northern portions of the State, Gov. Joseph E. Brennan was told at a State House briefing by Conservation Commissioner Richard B. Anderson and Forest Service Director Kenneth Stratton.

"We are very concerned that individuals and agencies involved in fighting a major fire in budworm damaged stands be aware of the special hazards we face," Commissioner Anderson said.

This briefing was part of a series of steps being taken by the Department of Conservation to plan for eventuality of a fire in budworm damaged stands.

Maine Forest Service rangers have mapped the areas of highest hazard including stands where an estimated 75% of the trees are dead. Areas of 100 acres or larger within a ten mile radius of any town or areas of 1,000 acres in unorganized sections were mapped.

Forest Service officials expect that as more trees are killed by the budworm, the amount of high fire hazard area will increase.

Over half of the high hazard area identified is located in eastern Maine. In the north, the areas of highest hazard are located in the wildland areas and Baxter State Park. In western Maine, most of the hazard areas are concentrated on steep, mountainous terrain.

Kenneth Stratton, recently returned from a meeting of the Northeastern Forest Fire Commission, told the Governor that Maine has been more fortunate than the Provinces of Quebec and New Brunswick with forest fires this year.

"Forestry officials from Quebec reported that they now have about 300 square miles of forest land involved with fire—more land than has been burned in Quebec in the last five years. Officials from New Brunswick did not even attend the meeting, being tied up with numerous fires burning in their spruce/fir forests," Stratton said. None of the Canadian fires are a threat to Maine woodlands, he added.

The Maine Forest Service is making a series of recommendations to towns near the areas of high fire hazard. Among the recommendations are restrictions on the issuance of burning permits, on-site inspections of areas where outdoor burning is proposed and meetings with landowners and railroads to pinpoint problem areas.

The Forest Service is recommending that individuals who own property in or near budworm damaged areas remove dead trees

"DOG DAYS" CAN BE DEADLY FOR PETS

Leaving a pet in a parked car on a hot summer day can be fatal for the animal and may lead to a court summons for the animal's owner. That warning to pet owners was issued by the Maine Department of Agriculture's Division of Animal Welfare early last week as daily high temperatures around the state soared above the 80 degree mark.

"Dogs and other pets are very susceptible to heat stroke," says Stanley Browne, Director of the Animal Welfare Division. "On sunny days from late June through September, a closed, parked car can become unbearably hot in a very short time and pets left in them can suffer a painful, agonizing death."

Browne notes that, aside from being concerned about the health of their animals, pet owners should be aware that leaving pets in parked vehicles exposed to the sun can be a violation of state laws. Under the laws regarding humane treatment of animals, state humane agents or other law enforcement officials may take necessary action to summons a careless pet owner for cruelty, a violation that could result in a fine of up to $1,000.

When shopping or sightseeing, Browne advises, leave your pet at home. He said if you must leave an animal in a car, be sure to park in a shaded area, open all windows as much as possible for cross-ventilation, and return to your pet as soon as you can.

NOTES FROM

Evans Notch

White Mountain National Forest

With the passing of the July 4 holiday week end, recreational use of the Evans Notch Ranger District of the White Mountain National Forest is at the highest level of the year.

Annual maintenance of developed and back country facilities, as well as over 100 miles of Forest Service maintained hiking trails, has been completed and are ready for the Forest visitor to enjoy.

Recent spells of hot weather have caused an increase in the forest fire danger level. Areas which were damaged by the December 1980 windstorm are still very hazardous under these weather conditions due to the large amount of softwood slash on the ground. We ask that you be especially careful with any form of fire, and remind you that a campfire permit is required if you plan to build a campfire anywhere other than a designated site. Also, remember that it is the camper's responsibility to extinguish a fire before leaving it unattended whether at a developed or undeveloped site.

A farewell roast and related festivities were held in honor of Jerry Fitzgerald at D. W. McKean's Lodge on June 22. Jerry is leaving the Evans Notch District to assume a new position as Zone Silviculturalist on the Ottawa National Forest in Michigan. Jerry will be missed by his many friends after spending 18 years on the White Mountain National Forest.

The 1983 Youth Conservation Corps program began on June 27. Forestry Technician Gary Inman will be the program coordinator and work leader for a variety of work projects in the areas of wildlife habitat improvement, trail maintenance and recreation projects. This year's enrollees are: Dickie McDonald, Rumford; Jeffrey Hodges, Dixfield; Bruce Fraser, Robin Boyce and Melinda Wilson, all of Bethel.

As summer use increases, so does the occurrence of vandalism and theft around the District. We recommend that you lock your vehicle and secure any valuables.

WORLD WAR I AUXILIARY MEETS AT LEGION HALL

The World War I Auxiliary #2943 met at the Legion Hall Wednesday, July 6, preceded by the usual "hot lunch" dinner. Plans for a picnic were changed owing to the weather. Only nine members were present. Myra Stevens gave the blessing.

The business meeting opened with Senior Vice President Mary Bishop presiding. Five officers were absent by roll call.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved. It was voted to pay all outstanding bills.

A yard sale and a food table is planned for Aug. 6. It will be held on Hilda Donahue's lawn.

Olive Head, Sunshine Chairman, gave her report for the month.

A dinner for the state officers was discussed and will be finalized at a later date. This is an annual event.

FROM THE BETHEL AREA HEALTH CENTER

What is a P.A.?

Until recently, when you were sick you were either seen by your doctor or a nurse. Now there is a new person as part of the health care team who is called a physician assistant (P.A.). A P.A. is a person medically trained to do many of the things your doctor can do. This might include a regular check-up, adjusting blood pressure medication, stitching cuts, or treating pneumonia.

By having a P.A. to take care of most of the day-to-day medical problems, your doctor has more time to spend on patients with complicated illnesses or those who are very sick. This shortens your waiting time for appointments and allows you more time with your doctor when you really need it.

In Maine, all P.A.'s are required to pass the national certifying test for physician assistants and to be graduates of schools approved by the American Medical Association. Much of their training is very similar to what a doctor goes through. Also, many P.A.'s have had previous experience as nurses, corpsman in the service, or other medical professions? A P.A. is always directly supervised by a physician, and they work together to handle medical problems. The P.A. who works at the Bethel Area Health Center would be happy to answer any further questions you may have.

You may have. It is best if you take your valuables with you. Report and suspicious activity or persons to one of the Forest Service employees on duty or members of the Oxford County Sheriff's Department, who also patrol the District.

We hope your visit to the White Mountain National Forest will be a safe and enjoyable one. There are many different ways to explore and enjoy the Forest and the beauty found in it. For more information contact the District Ranger at the Evans Notch Ranger District, Bridge Street, Bethel Maine 04217. Telephone 207/824-2134.

Forest Technician.

M-Farmington, June 9 and 10. She also gave a report of the July 3 dedication of the new Maine Veterans Home in Augusta.

Gov. Joseph Brennan was the speaker, followed by Sen. George M. Mitchell and Congressman John McKernan, Jr. World Wars I and II, the Korean War and the Vietnam Conflict were represented and it was stated that 1,200 World War I veterans are living now in Maine. State President Hilda Donahue of World War I Barracks Auxiliary #2943, and Jeri Brooks, Dept. President of the American Legion Auxiliaries were the Bethel representatives. Hilda is a member of Both Mundt-Allen Unit #81, and World War I Barracks Auxiliary #2943 at a buffet luncheon was served in the Orange Wing with over 300 attending.

Delegates for the National Convention being held in Texas, Aug. 28-Sept. 1 are Hilda Donahue, Mary Bishop and Myra Stevens. Alternates: Bell Lavorgna, Jane Van and Adeline Dexter. It was voted to pay delegates' fees.

The Aug. 3 meeting will be a picnic held at the Riverside Area, weather permitting. Bell Lavorgna, Bessie Pope and Myra Stevens are the Committee.

HISTORICAL SOC. HEARS OF HISTORIC HOUSES CRISIS

Earle G. Shettleworth, Director, Maine Historic Preservation Commission, and Sally Rand of Maine Citizens for Historic Preservation spoke at the monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society Thursday evening, July 7, on the crisis of Maine's historic houses. They pointed out that Maine's proud heritage of historic properties reflects generations of concern and effort by Maine citizens and that numerous historical societies, organizations, museums, entrepreneurs and patriotic associations provide public access to these historic properties for the people of Maine and thousands of visitors who tour the state each year. But many of these museums and other properties are in trouble. The cutback of Federal preservation funds and the impact of recent double digit inflation threaten the future of historic properties, particularly those with little or no endowment to provide income for their maintenance.

In response to this threat, Maine Citizens for Historic Preservation initiated a study of over 100 historic buildings open to the public in Maine, in order to identify the problems which the properties face. The exhibit "Maine's Historic Houses in Crisis: New Strategies in Survival" currently at the Moses Museum was prepared for the 1982 Maine Citizens Conference which presented the results of the study to the public.

The analysis by Maine Citizens has produced specific recommendations.

B.E.A.R.S.

(Bethel Emergency Ambulance & Rescue Service)

The monthly meeting will be held on July 17 at 7 o'clock. There will be a board of directors meeting at six o'clock.

Florence Merrill will be making out the next schedule, from Aug. 6 to Aug. 27. Please contact her if for any reason you can not take your regular duty.

Little Kylie Sweetser has been visiting her grandmother, Esther, and family for two weeks.

Anyone wishing to help at the First Aid tent for Mollyockett Day, July 16, contact Laura Plawlock.

Safety Tip of the Week

—Power Lines

Now summer is here there are lots of outdoor activities many of us will be engaged in that have the potential to put us in touch with power lines. Contact with live wires can mean serious injury or death. Always remember — ladders, sailboat masts, antenna, and some kite strings are excellent conductors — and must be kept well away from power lines. Be aware of thunder storms when doing any activity near power lines — or wafer — avoid any materials that act as conductors.

GUEST SPEAKERS at the meeting of the Bethel Historical Society on Thursday, July 7, were, left, Earle G. Shettleworth, Director, Maine Historic Preservation Commission, and Sally Rand, Maine Citizens for Historic Preservation.

dations for financial and organizational programs for Maine's historic properties. Only with broader public support and better institutional cooperation can these houses survive the present day and remain available to future generations. Maine Citizens is currently pursuing statewide funding for capital repairs for the most important historic properties through legislative action and is exploring the establishment of a Maine Historic Properties Fund to be supported by donations from the private sector.

The crisis in Maine's historic houses cannot be solved by individual organizations trying separately to preserve their own buildings. Shettleworth and Rand urged everyone to work together to create a healthy future for Maine historic properties.

Prior to the program a short business meeting was held with President Donald G. Bennett announcing that the artifact of the month was a ladder-back child's chair, the gift of Corinne Twitchell of Portland. Miss Twitchell is a descendant of Bethel's early settler, Eleazer Twitchell and the chair has long been in the Twitchell family. The president also announced that Dr. Joel Eastman, Chairman of the Department of History, University of Southern Maine, will speak at the next meeting on Aug. 4 on the subject of the Katakhdin Iron Works. As this was collectibles night, several members brought parts of their collection(s) for discussion and exhibition. The Society's annual picnic preceded the meeting and refreshments and a social hour followed the program.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my children and grandchildren for all the help given to me. For all the good care taken of my little dogs and my birds. A big thank you to my friends and neighbors for food, cards, flowers, and visits to the hospital. I also wish to thank the people on the ambulance the day I was taken to the hospital. Thanks also to Dr. LaCombe, Dr. Ware, and the nurses at Stephens Memorial Hospital. I needed help, you gave it. Thank you all so very much.

When Sharon Felt had the family party on July 3, one of the cakes was for her parents, Richard and Barbara Felt, for their 38th anniversary, June 30. Sorry Barb. We all ate cake anyway.

The Community Club had their monthly meeting at the hall July 6. Doris Lawrence was secretary pro-tem in the absence of Susan Lyons. $230 was reported from the last supper, July 2. They voted to buy the new drapes for the hall and Joe Vatcher selected them and hung them up Friday evening. The hall looks all dressed up now. Voted to have the next supper July 30 from 5-6. Ginger cake (home made) with whipped cream for dessert and we will try to serve everyone, even the cooks. A flea market will be held at the hall in August, date to be announced later.

At the close of the meeting, strawberry shortcake was furnished by Joe Vatcher and Doris Lawrence. So the kitchen help were served their dessert a few days late. Eveline was sick with a cold and she missed all the many calories.

Mr. and Mrs. James Russell (Betty Stevens) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Crystal Lynn, born July 4, weighing 6 lbs. 13 oz. at the Stephens Memorial Hospital. Mother and daughter are at their home now and the baby is a doll.

The Senior Citizens trip to the Proctor Gardens was cancelled due to the extreme heat.

Joseph Vatcher went to Danvers, Mass., Thursday, to see his mother and she was in bed with a cold. "Root" Lawrence went with Joe as Eveline was sick. Andréa Vatcher also went and Joe took her to her home in Lynn, Mass. She had spent four days with her grandmother, Rhoda Vatcher.

Callers at Lawrence's: Patty Bean and Lavinia, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Coffin, Jimbo, Arnold Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, Rhoda Vatcher and Andréa, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Downing, Steve Millett came and mowed the lawn. The Vatchers had a cook out at Lawrence's Sunday but they ate in the house with a fire going.

Herbert Ryerson was cutting down a tree on his property when the wind came up and blew the tree in the opposite direction taking down the electrical and telephone wires. The utility trucks were there for several hours repairing the damage and putting up a new pole.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Abbott went to Cadillac Mountain the past week and as it was a clear day they could see for miles around, and they enjoyed it all.

Blanche Ridley is very ill at Ledgeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott and Jo-Arm and Joe and Eveline Vatcher spent Saturday evening with Doris and "Root" Lawrence.

Sorry to read that Fred Judkins has lost all his ducks. Maybe some animal had a good feast.

Isn't it nice to have a cool breath of fresh air this lovely Monday morning? We need it.

CARD OF THANKS

Thank you to my many friends for their cards and visits while I was hospitalized in Rumford and Lewiston. Also a very special thanks to the very prompt and efficient Bethel Ambulance crew.

—Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres.—

Today I walked up the mountain and looked out far across the valley to green fields, the green of woodlands, and the shadows of the valley. The men were busy in the hayfields. The air was sweet with new mown hay.

"When the midsummer days are sunny and bright

And a harvest moon swings in a clear sky at night;

When meadows are fragrant with roses, dew-peppared,

And everything seems to be right with the world

Then nature produces a picture serene

Of haying time in an old-fashioned scene.

When the wagons were full, nearly reaching the sky

We children climbed up, oh, ever so high!

Like a king on a throne we would ride,

Holding the reins and bursting with pride.

Lifted aloft in the sweet smelling hay,

This was indeed a most wonderful day!

With the passing of years the picture was changed,

The scene in the meadow has been rearranged.

Now a baling machine in operation

Gathers and bales, a fine occupation.

But still every summer I ride country lanes

And look for the old-fashioned haystacks again."

It was one of those dazzling blue days with scarcely a cloud, healing to the heart and easing to the senses.

Swallows shuttled back and forth on a hunt for insects.

Now and then I stopped to taste a strawberry.

Gold finches passed in their "rocking chairs".

I missed the Bob-o-links with their music of a thousand, chiming bells. They leave us early in the season.

The curving shoulders of the land were spangled with wild flowers. The farm was filled with peace. I could feel it. The sun lay softly upon it, and the wind whispered in the trees as I took a short-cut home.

Night is now knitting over my face, as I watch the little stars of the earth, the fireflies. Like expanding ripple rings on a pond, these lights spread out from the house to the yard, and then to the pond and forest's edge. Light is

This was indeed a most wonderful day!

With the passing of years the picture was changed,
The scene in the meadow has been rearranged.
Now a baling machine in operation
Gathers and bales, a fine occupation.

But still every summer I ride country lanes
And look for the old-fashioned haystacks again."

It was one of those, dazzling blue days with scarcely a cloud, healing to the heart and easing to the senses.

Swallows shuttled back and forth on a hunt for insects.

Now and then I stopped to taste a strawberry.

Gold finches passed in their "rocking chairs".

I missed the Bob-o-links with their music of a thousand, chiming bells. They leave us early in the season.

The curving shoulders of the land were spangled with wild flowers. The farm was filled with peace. I could feel it. The sun lay softly upon it, and the wind whispered in the trees as I took a short-cut home.

Night is now knitting over my face, as I watch the little stars of the earth, the fireflies. Like expanding ripple rings on a pond, these lights spread out from the house to the yard, and then to the pond and forest's edge. Light is draining from among the trees. Wood thrushes sing in the warm twilight. Night is coming on, a clear night. Beyond the lawn shines the pond with a luminous sheen reflected from the sky and the fireflies light mirrored on the water.

The woods and shore have relapsed into a doze. These fireflies flash every six seconds, a male gives a flash usually on a short rising flight and in a few seconds a female gives him a response. It becomes a winking event. They are a mystery to science.

I used to like to walk by night under the stars. There is warmth in the deep sun shine, but it's the stars that bring to us the endless immensity of the universe. How wonderful it all is.

It was pleasant to go to bed this week in a rarified cool atmosphere after so many hot nights. Also the cool of the morning was easier to garden in, but it determinedly warmed when the sun climbed above the mountains' crests. I usually get to the farm and to the garden sometime during the day. It's a joy to be there for everything looks so nice. Takes hard work to keep it so. Pay is still unable to see and I know she misses a chance to gather the vegetables. Some thoughtful person stopped by, when Clyde was working to tell him how lovely it looked.

Zilpha DiArenzo stopped in to see me this week and also called on Fay. Madge Bland, Fay's cousin, called her on the phone from Connecticut. Eldith Lang of West Paris, came up and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Cook of Massachusetts were there as well as the Russell Brennans who are here on vacation.

It was a pleasant surprise to have my niece, Laurene French, and her husband, Ed, made a dooryard call on Sunday. Her Dad, Carroll Nottage, was with them. We were glad to see him after four weeks in the hospital. He couldn't make the steps so we visited in the yard.

With flags flying, as a greeting this driveway had many visitors on bicycles come and go on Saturday. Over 40 made the 7 1/2 miles from Norway in the bike-o-thon. It was a tough push on the hill here; hard work but they made it.

Something unusual happened at the Hayes Homestead on Saturday. No one came! They don't know what they missed—pork roast and all that goes with it.

There were a few callers at the home of Frank Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Ed French and Carroll Nottage, here from Texas; Mabel Oldham, Norway; Lucy and Tommy Bragg, West Sumner, and Mildred Bowman, Hebron.

Fred and Rena Curtis enjoyed a visit from their granddaughter, Karen Cogswell, her father and mother, Steve and Colista, and a friend, Gary Green, all from Freeport, this week.

Deven and Judi Campbell Andrews are pleased to announce the arrival of a daughter, Kara Lynn on June 22, 1983, weighing 9 lbs. 1 oz. Grandparents are Mrs. Pat Verrill of Norway, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell of Bryant Pond. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. Stanley Andrews of Bryant Pond, Mr. and Mrs. C. James Knights of Bryant Pond and Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Tamminen of Greenwood. Kara arrived on her great grandfather Nestor Tamminen's birthday.

TOURISTS ADVISED TO KEEP CLOSE TRACK OF PETS

Tourists travelling Maine this summer with pets are advised by the Maine Department of Agriculture's Division of Animal Welfare to keep close track of their animals and to be sure their pets are wearing an identifying collar.

"Thousands of visitors who come to enjoy the State of Maine each summer bring along their pets," says Stanley T. Browne, Director of the Division of Animal Welfare. "Unfortunately, many of those animals are lost or abandoned here by the time vacationers return to their homes. Stray and abandoned animals frequently succumb to abuse, disease or starvation, while some are picked up by animal control officers and eventually euthanized if the owner cannot be identified and no one claims them."

Browne warns visitors that, under Maine law, dogs are not allowed to run at large. Anyone deliberately abandoning an animal is also in violation of State law. Dog owners who accidentally lose their pet are urged to notify the police or local animal control officer and to check with the nearest local animal shelter as soon as possible.

Contact: Stanley Browne, Director, Division of Animal Welfare, AFARL (307) 289-3846.

THIS WEEK AT THE MOSES MASON HOUSE

New member of the Bethel Historical Society this week is Jane Champe Payne of Hanover.

The Moses Mason Museum has attracted visitors to date from Maine; Georgia, Virginia, Illinois, Massachusetts, Florida, New York, Connecticut as well as West Germany, the United Kingdom and Prince Edward Island.

A century ago the "Oxford Democrat" was recording for July 3, 1883 that "haying will commence soon", the sale of mowing machines was "never better" and that "farmers were backward with their hoeing on account of the late spring."

It was reported that "thieves entered the store of Grover and Burnham last Thursday night by way of a back window and took four suits of clothes and some boots and shoes." The article continued: "We learn Deputy Wornell is close on their heels".

Also recorded for this date is the information that "Dr. Goddard is getting long finely with his house in Meadow Park, got up two stories, working on the third", that "W. Hammons has about completed his new store on Main Street, and is filling up with goods", that "John Swan will have his new house on Railroad Street completed in a few weeks", that "C. H. Barker has moved into his new house on High Street, a fine cottage." It was reported that "Woodbury and Purington have had a large number of workmen on their store, and everything moves forward." The item continues that the Woodbury and Purington store "will be one of the largest and best arranged stores in the County."

Mr. Frank Needham was reported to have "purchased a stand on Paradise Street, and is raising up the house and making extensive repairs." There was a festival at Pattee's Hall sponsored by the M. E. Church with $45 raised. Summer visitors were reported to have already arrived in Bethel. Mr. S. B. Twitchell and A. M. Valentine have their boarding houses "all engaged." It was reported that Miss Locke's house and the Waterspot Mountain House rooms "are all engaged as well." The blueberry crop was reported to be "abundant."
